NEWSLETTER

Volume: 2 | Issue : 3

2015

Prof. (Dr.) Sham Lal Singla
Vice-Chancellor

It is a matter of great pleasure that Vol. 2 No.3:2015 of the Newsletter is finding place in your hands. The University has taken a stride forward in its development by establishing 13 faculties and offering 110 courses in these faculties in a short period of less than three years. I sincerely thank and congratulate all the faculty members and staff for their tireless hard work and unconditional cooperation. It is our endeavour to become one of the best universities in this region and we are continuously moving in this direction. To keep everybody informed of the developments in various disciplines and faculties through this Newsletter is our objective so that every individual interested in the University can plan his/her contribution for the time to come.

A proper planning of the department in regard to training, academics, clinical care wherever applicable and research is an integral and important part of future planning of any University. Taking advantage of this occasion, I request everybody to put maximum efforts to develop their discipline or the subject in a best way, as today's planning shall become foundation of the forthcoming institutions of eminence in the respective field of education. There may be certain teething problems, but we all jointly have to address these problems and find solutions for the proper implementation of our long term planning. Innovation in teaching methodology is the demand of the day. The age old methods, though useful and tested, require to be updated to train best of skills and impart knowledge without putting much stress and strain on budding minds. The overall development of personality is necessary of each of our student to make them capable of dealing with all possible challenges in profession and future life. I am sure, all of us will leave no stone unturned to contribute the best for the development this University.

Seminar by CUTS Institute for Regulation and Competition

The CUTS Institute for Regulation and Competition (CIRC) organized a Student Awareness Seminar on Competition Law on 21st August 2015 at the Faculty of Law. The Seminar was attended by all the law students with great enthusiasm to learn about the new developments in Competition Law, especially relating to the issues of Anti-Competitive agreements, Mergers & Acquisitions and Intellectual Property Rights. The Seminar also provided the students an opportunity to gain in-depth knowledge about the administrative authorities like Competition Commission of India and Competition Appellate Tribunal, established under the Competition Act. Students were advised about the new career options in Competition Law and were advised to start practice in newly emerging areas like Competition Law, where there are very few lawyers practicing currently.

Interaction of Mr. Abhyudaya Agarwal, CEO, iPleaders with the Students:

Mr. Abhyudaya Agarwal Interacting with Students

The Faculty of Law organized a motivating-cum-training session on 25th August 2015, for law students as part of their clinical activity. This training session was conducted by Mr. Abhyudaya Agarwal, Founder and CEO, iPleaders, New Delhi. Mr. Abhyudaya Agarwal interacted with the students and motivated them to utilize their potential to the fullest. He discussed with them those experiential elements which would add to their CV and enhance their employability. He particularly emphasized upon the need for developing research habit to become effective lawyers and good writers. He advised that they should create a blog in order to get response from the readers. He also suggested that they should conduct research on a particular legal issue and convert it into an article. The purpose of this interactive session was to motivate students to involve themselves in legal research and cultivate the habit of writing articles.

Training for Students to Search Law Databases:

Use of technology has now become very important for lawyers to search a particular judgment from the ocean of judgments delivered by Supreme Court and various other courts in India. 'Manupatra' is one of the important law databases of judgments pronounced by the highest Court of India and the Tribunals and other courts down the line, apart from reporting judgments of US Supreme Court, UK Courts and International Court of Justice. The SGT University subscribes to this database.

Orientation Programme:

Orientation Programme for the students of the Law Faculty was held on 10th September 2015. Hon'ble Justice (Dr.) Arijit Pasayat, former Judge, Supreme Court of India was the Chief Guest. Faculty was also honoured to have Prof. (Dr.) Mool Chand Sharma, former Member, Law Commission of India; and Shri P.K. Malhotra, Secretary, Ministry of Law & Justice, Govt. of India.

EXPOSURE IN FILMMAKING:

Practical exposure is an essential part of the studies. The more a person has practical exposure in film making, the more he will learn and be confident to take up the venture. With this in mind and for 'hands on' training in documentary filmmaking, the students of this Faculty deputed were to AIIMS, New Delhi for interviewing the outstation patients, camping outside the hospital due to lack of proper amenities. Upon interacting with a number of such patients and interviewing them on camera, students were sensitized about the problems of these patients with regard to food and shelter and interminably long delays in getting treated. This was a wonderful learning experience for the students.
